

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how Mark Tudor Consulting uses and protects any information that you provide when you use this website.

Mark Tudor Consulting is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should Mark Tudor Consulting ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

Any personal data used by Mark Tudor Consulting, including any information collected through this website will be treated as strictly confidential in line with the principles of the UK Data Protection Act 1998.

Mark Tudor Consulting may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 1st May 2016.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- name and job title;
- contact information including email address;
- demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests;
- other information relevant to customer surveys and/or offers.

How we use this information

Mark Tudor Consulting requires this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- To treat you more personally;
- To fulfil your business requirements and deliver what you have asked us for;
- Internal record keeping;
- To improve our products and services;
- To send you requested and appropriate communications;

- From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for market research purposes. We may contact you by email, phone, fax or mail. We may use the information to customise the website according to your interests;
- For anonymous analysis about how our visitors use the site to help improve it.

Links to other websites

This website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, Mark Tudor Consulting cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Payment information

From time to time, you may request to pay for our services by using a credit or debit card. Mark Tudor Consulting does not retain or maintain any customer credit card information for future use.

Controlling your personal information

Mark Tudor Consulting will never knowingly, without your permission, pass your data on to any third party unless required to do so by law.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. If you would like a copy of the information held on you, please email data@marktudor.co.uk

You may at any time request that any information held about you or your company be changed or removed from our systems.

If you believe that the information Mark Tudor Consulting holds on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email us as soon as possible at the above address. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
